

SLM Forum

Promoting SLM: Co-Creating a Better Future

< Presentation List >

Part 1: International Panel Discussion “Are Lakes Sustainable?”

- | | |
|--|--|
| Ministry of Environment and Forestry,
Indonesia | Are Lakes Sustainable? Why is this happening, why is this critical, what do we need to do? (Indonesia experiences and program) |
| Ministry of the Environment, Japan | Sustainable Lake Management in Japan |
| Shiga Prefecture, Japan | Our Action for Sustainable Management of Lake Biwa, Shiga Prefecture, Japan |
| University of Guanajuato, Mexico | ”From the Source to the Sea” Approach: The importance of considering lakes, rivers, and oceans as an interconnected system from their water sources to their endpoints |
| Griffith University, Australia | Promoting Sustainable Lake Management: Co-creating a Better Future |
| UNEP, Kenya | Are Lakes Sustainable? Current efforts, future perspectives and emerging challenges |
| Taneya Club Harie, Japan | Learning From Nature; Taneya Group, on the Work of Economic Organizations |

Part 2: Round Table “Sustainable Lake Management with Global Youth ~Toward WLC20”

- | | |
|--|---|
| Australia (Research Fellow) | Automated and Dynamic Freshwater Ecosystem Mapping to GET |
| Hungary (Postdoctoral researcher) | Study of Freshwater Microalgae |
| Philippines (Municipal Councilor) | TRIBE: Taytay River Initiative for Better Environment |
| Mexico (Associate Professor) | The study of aquatic ecosystems in Mexico: challenges and opportunities |
| Uganda (PhD student) | YOUTH INVOLVEMENT IN INTEGRATED WATER RESOURCES MANAGEMENT |
| Japan (Undergrad) | Harada's Seminar at Doshisha University: Garbage application and river environment conservation |
| Japan (IVUSA) | Collaborative removal of an invasive alien aquatic weed by volunteering university students around Lake Biwa, Japan |
| Japan (Alumni of Seian University of Art and Design) | Ecotourism following the path of water (Video) |
| Japan (Youth Ramsar Japan) | Activity of Youth Ramsar Japan |
| Indonesia (SMK 11 Semarang) | Rawa Pening: Lake Management in Central Java, Indonesia |